Introducing the H.R. Help Line

Manage Your Employment-Related Risks at No Additional Charge

No company is immune to employment-related exposures — even those with sound, carefully worded human resources policies and procedures. Whether it's allegations of employment-related discrimination and sexual harassment, or retaliation against an employee, the cost of defending your business against these types of allegations can be significant. To help Employment Practices Liability (EPL) policyholders manage these risks, a new Risk Control resource is available at no additional charge.

The H.R. Help Line provides CNA EPL policyholders with a toll-free number to receive complimentary legal assistance from Filion Wakely Thorup Angeletti LLP, a leading national labour law firm. EPL insureds may call 844-378-6580, provide the company's policy number, and receive advice from an attorney on general information regarding employment laws and risk control strategies*. There is no limit to the number of times that a policyholder may contact the H.R. Help Line.

We Offer More than Just a Policy

The H.R. Help Line is another resource that CNA provides to help EPL policyholders mitigate exposure to costly employment claims and litigation. Our EPL coverage addresses a wide range of potential exposures, including issues arising from internal practices and procedures. And with more than a century of experience, we've developed a reputation for offering more than just a policy. Our underwriting and risk control professionals offer tailored industry-specific coverages and provide you with the tools and resources you need to understand your exposures and address potential losses. And in the event that you file a claim, our skilled claim professionals are dedicated to working diligently with you, so that you may remain focused on your clients.
